

Office supplier and printing business for sale-Brisbane Southside

One of the most popular businesses today, founded by a local Australian 19 years and first-time on offer for sale. A high-profit but low-cost business with an annual turnover is around one million.

The business provides promotional products and office supplies printing, indoor and outdoor; it also has a huge long-term loyal customer base, and stable suppliers of various sign printing, and installation. Having a perfect management system and a comfortable office environment with high-quality equipment, the business is very easy to run. It is perfectly located very close to the highway, and easy to access.

Known for its success, integrity, and stable goodwill. The owner is also a landlord and willing to offer great lease terms to new buyers. A young owner is willing to stay and help the buyer keep working if needed. Commercial properties can be considered for sale together if you have sufficient funds. Chinese investment, a preferred stable business for immigration reference.
