

Florist business for sale in Brisbane

This popular and highly profitable florist business was founded by local Australians 20 years ago. It is situated in the busiest and most popular shopping centre in a peaceful, affluent suburb. Despite the challenges posed by COVID, the business continues to thrive. Current sales and turnover stand over $10,000 per week, supported by a large and stable local customer base.

The business boasts long-term, skilled staff and stable suppliers. All management and customer systems are in place, allowing for potential under-management oversight.

The bustling florist shop occupies a prime location near the shopping centre entrance and supermarket, experiencing heavy foot traffic. The shop's design is modern and simple, featuring a large cold room.
