

Bakery for sale – Brisbane Northside

An established, award-winning bakery chain with three strategic locations in North Brisbane is now for sale. Known for its high-quality baked goods and excellent service, this business has firmly established itself in the community, achieving an annual turnover of $1.7 million.

This bakery chain has served the community for over 30 years, earning a solid reputation for its quality products and customer service. The central bakery supplies the other locations, streamlining operations and reducing overheads. The vendor noted that setting up the central bakery required an investment of approximately $200,000, reflecting the quality and scale of the operation. Currently, the business operates six days a week, with the opportunity to expand trading to seven days to further increase revenue.
